

MEETING ANNOUNCEMENT

RAFT RIVER GEOSCIENCE SYMPOSIUM

APRIL 16 AND 17, 1979

POCATELLO, IDAHO

PURPOSE:

The symposium will bring together people performing geoscience work that supports geothermal resource definition at Raft River. We feel researchers should share their results and participate in an informal discussion. Planning for future work will be better directed as a result of the symposium. Raft River has been selected by DOE as a case study for moderate-temperature hydrothermal resource definition. We want to ensure that the case study is complete.

LOCATION:

The symposium will be held at the Holiday Inn at Pocatello, Idaho, on April 16 and 17. Convenient accommodations are available at either the Holiday Inn or the Hilton Inn in Pocatello. Attendees are requested to make their own reservations for accommodations.

REGISTRATION:

April 16, 12:00 - 3:00 - Meeting will begin at 1:00 P.M.
April 17, 8:00 - 9:00 - Meeting will begin at 9:00 A.M.

PARTICIPANTS:

Speakers will include people who have performed geoscience work at Raft River. A tentative list of speakers is:
